Our Lady During Advent

Advent is a season of holy waiting—of quiet hope, patient trust, and longing for God's promises to be fulfilled. In this sacred time, the Church invites us to look to Our Lady, who embodies Advent more perfectly than any other disciple.

Mary stands at the centre of Advent not as a distant figure, but as a mother who teaches us how to wait. Her life was shaped by expectation: the hopes of Israel, the promise of the angel, and the mystery growing silently within her womb. She teaches us that waiting is not passive. It is active faith—listening, trusting, and allowing God to work in ways beyond our understanding.

At the Annunciation, Mary hears a word that changes everything. Her "Yes" is not spoken from certainty, but from trust. She does not know the details of what lies ahead, yet she entrusts her future to God: "Let it be done to me according to your word." During Advent, Mary invites us to echo that same openness—to say "yes" to God even when our path is unclear.

Mary also shows us that Advent hope is carried in humility and silence. For months, she bears Christ hidden from the world. There is no applause, no recognition—only quiet fidelity. In a noisy world that demands instant results, Our Lady teaches us to treasure stillness, to allow Christ to grow within us through prayer, patience, and love.

When Mary visits Elizabeth, her joy overflows in the Magnificat. Advent is not only about waiting; it is about rejoicing in what God has already begun. Mary helps us recognize the small signs of God's faithfulness in our own lives—moments of grace, healing, and promise that remind us God is near.

As we journey through Advent, Our Lady walks with us. She encourages us to trust God's timing, to carry Christ into our families and communities, and to prepare room in our hearts for Emmanuel—God with us.

May Mary, Mother of Hope, teach us how to wait with faith, to listen with love, and to welcome Christ with joy.

Assisted Dying for Terminally Ill Adults (Scotland) Bill

The Scottish Parliament's Health, Social Care & Sports Committee recently met to consider further amendments to the Assisted Dying Bill. They dismissed several proposed safeguards, including limiting eligibility to those with six months or less to live (including intellectual disability or eating disorders, poverty or inadequate housing). They went further and rejected an amendment which will allow doctors to initiate discussions on assisted suicide with their patients, and also voted against permitting hospices and care homes to opt out of facilitating assisted suicide. Greta Reilly Memorial Mass

Holy Mass will be offered in Holy Trinity today (Sunday 21st December) for the Repose of the Soul of Greta Reilly. As you know, Greta's Requiem Mass was celebrated in Biggar Kirk on Tuesday, and this will give parishioners the opportunity to pray together for Greta.

Greta's family would like to thank parishioners for the many condolences received and prayers offered.

RCIA - Welcome

With great joy, we welcome and congratulate Maisie, Gill, Grant, Leona & Jason as they complete their RCIA journey after celebrating their initiation into the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

Nourished by the Eucharist and strengthened by the Holy Spirit, we pray they may continue to grow in faith, hope, and love.

Fr John-Paul would like to thank those who helped prepare our Candidates over the last 6 months by way of leading sessions and answering questions. Jimmy and Irene who accompanied and prepared Maisie; Patricia who was involved in accompanying and preparing Gill and Grant; and Mary Margaret and Bernadette who prepared and accompanied Leona and Jason. We are very blessed to have so many good and able people in our parish who love to share their faith with others!

If you are interested in becoming a Catholic or know of someone who is interested in becoming a Catholic, please speak to Fr John-Paul.

Liturgical Calendar

Friday 26th December, St Stephen, Martyr - In light of what was to Stephen, how amazing were his final words, praying to God to pardon his killers. His "crime" was to have spoken hard truths that his audience did not want to hear. So the frenzied mob put him to death by stoning. Under the rocks crushing out his life, Stephen commended his spirit to Jesus, and with his dying breath prayed for his killers.

Saturday 27th December, St John, Apostle & Evangelist - What distinguishes this disciple from the others is that he received and responded more fully to the love of Jesus than all others. He was the only male disciple present at the foot of the cross. His love brought him to the empty tomb quicker than Peter; his love gave him the insight to recognize the true meaning of the empty tomb; and ultimately to grasp and to proclaim the mystery of the Word-made-flesh: that Jesus was God-incarnate.
